YOU MIGHT TRY—

FOR AFTERNOON TEA
A loaf of cake sugar rubbed over the surface of an orange will retain the orange flavor by absorbing the oil. Sugar thus prepared and used in tea furnishes to the latter a most delicious flavor, suggesting orange pekoe.

SAVING OLD TRAYS.
When a lustrous tray becomes old and chipped, give it two coats of white paint and one of enamel, the bottom as well as the top. Stand it on the edge to dry after each coat. It will be found as good as new as well as very pretty. The enamel is easily renewed.

HEMMING LINEN.
When turning a hem of linen, keep a glass of warm water at hand and dip the fingers into it frequently. The stickiness of the heavy linen will yield and the work may be accomplished more much more quickly and accurately.

MINT SAUCE SUBSTITUTE.
If fresh mint leaves are not on hand, a few drops of essence of peppermint with a pinch of sugar and one of salt added to pure cider vinegar, make a good substitute for mint sauce. I have often used it.

FOR COLLEGE "SPREADS."
An inexpensive going-away gift that any college girl will appreciate is a box fitted with a nickel plated can opener, a set of nut crackers and pickers, a sharp bread knife and strong corker, a set of nut crackers and pickers, a sharp bread knife and strong corker. If a candy cooling pan, as well as nut and measuring cup be added, the gift will be envied by her whole set. The gift need cost no more than a dollar.

A SURE FLEA KILLER.
A sure way to get rid of fleas and other insects is to use pennyroyal oil. Sprinkle the oil over the animal to be treated and over any place where insects are bothersome. The odor of this oil has great penetrative power and no insects or animals will remain long in its vicinity.

TRIED RECIPES

Bread Horns.
Sift and beat five cups of bread flour, add three well beaten eggs, one cup of milk, one half cup of soft butter, a level teaspoon of salt and one half yeast cake dissolved in two table-spoonsful of milk. Beat the batter until it blisters, cover and let rise, until twice its size. Roll out and cut in squares about two inches each way and about one inch thick. Pull out opposite corners of the bread and roll between the palms of the hands, then curve round like horns. Rub with butter, cover and let rise about an hour or until light, then brush over with the white of an egg beaten with a tablespoon of water and sprinkle with granulated sugar. Bake in a quick oven 15 or 20 minutes.—A. E. Whitaker.

Salmon Chops.
Drain the oil from a can of salmon, remove the skin and bones, separate the fish into flakes and add sifted cracker crumbs to make stiff enough to mold. Season with salt and pepper and add one cup thick white sauce and shape like lamb chops, using a piece of macaroni for the bone. Dip in beaten egg, then in cracker crumbs and fry in deep hot fat.

Raised Biscuit.
One quart milk, three fourths cup lard or butter (half and half is good), three fourths cup of yeast, two table-spoonsful white sugar, one teaspoonful salt, flour to make a soft dough; mix over night, warming the milk slightly and melting the butter. In the morning roll out into a sheet three quarters of an inch thick; cut them into round cakes; set them closely together in a pan; bake 20 minutes.

Tomato Toast.
Heat one can of tomatoes, season with a level teaspoonful of salt, a salt-spoon of pepper, one rounding tablespoon of sugar, a level tablespoon of butter, and cook all together quarter of an hour. Toast half a dozen slices of bread, butter them on one side; arrange on a platter and pour the hot tomato over and serve very hot.

Caramel Ice Cream.
Heat two cups of milk, add three quarters cup of sugar and the beaten yolks of three eggs. Cook until it thickens, then add one cup of cream, and just as soon as it reaches the scalding point set aside to cool. Melt one half cup of sugar in a small pan, and when it turns brown add carefully one half cup of water and cook until a syrup is formed. Add the syrup to the cream and one teaspoon of vanilla. Cool and freeze.

SOCIETY AT THE NATIONAL CAPITAL

BY C. S. ALBERT.

[Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence.]
WASHINGTON, August 12.—Socially, Washington may be as dead as the proverbial "door nail," but there are probably more folks of prominence to be found in town now than usually during mid-August.

With the exception of a few days now and then, the weather has been wonderfully pleasant, and there are many people who find that until the weather makes it unbearable Washington is a far more delightful place in summer from numerous points of view than the average resort.

After a busy winter many hostesses remain in their comfortable houses until late in August, finding greater rest in quiet and informal living than is to be had traveling or in hotels. These stay-at-homes really are out of doors the greater part of the time, finding the drives in and about Washington, with the various clubhouses as the objective points, sufficiently diverting.

In addition to the official colony remaining in the city awaiting the adjournment of Congress, there are a number of diplomats.

The sympathy of the nation is extended to Mrs. Taft in her recent bereavement. Mrs. Taft has now returned to the summer White House, Parramatta, at Beverly, Mass., where she has as her constant companion her young son, Charles Taft. The President is expected to join his family later in the month.

Mrs. Knox, wife of the Secretary of State, who has been dividing her summer between Washington and the Knox country place at Valley Forge, Pennsylvania, is now in the city preparing to accompany Secretary Knox to Japan to attend the funeral of the Emperor.

They expect to leave Washington Thursday, and will sail for Seattle, returning to this country in October.

Mrs. Joseph Leiter, who is spending the summer with her family at their new country place in Virginia is seen in town in her electric.

Brig. Gen. F. A. Garlington, U. S. A., and Mrs. Garlington, who kept their house open this year for the marriage of their daughter, Miss Sally Garlington and Lieut. Harry D. Chamberlain, U. S. A., several weeks ago, are closing it and will leave shortly to remain until fall. Their plans for a trip through the Yellowstone have been given up and they will probably make a series of visits in the North.

Turning to Newport and its not a long way. With the arrival of the New York Yacht Club fleet, there will be a continuous round of dinners, dances, likewise charitable entertainments, until after the Horse Show, which opens on Labor Day. The annual dog show at the Rhode Island Kennel Club yesterday at the Newport Casino was the largest ever given by the club. Charles E. Townsend's Rodeau won the Mme. Bakmeteff cup offered for French bulldogs.

All Newport society is on the tip of expectation to learn just what Commodore and Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt are planning for the evening of August 23, in addition to the fancy dress ball. It is known that Oriental costumes will predominate, but it is the theatrical portion of their entertainment about which the mystery lurks.

One of the chief gatherings of the season thus far at Bar Harbor was at a garden party and tea given by Mrs. Col. John Biddle Porter, U. S. A., and Mrs. Porter for her daughter, Miss Elizabeth Biddle Porter, who will be among the Washington debutantes this winter. Another entertainment which is being looked forward to with anticipation is the reception at Bowline Green on August 22 which Mrs. Hunt Slater will give in honor of the Russian Ambassador and Mme. Bakmeteff.

The Ambassador and Mme. Bakmeteff will leave Newport, where they have been among the leading social sports since their arrival early in the season, next week to visit Bar Harbor. Upon their return, they will have as their guests Mr. and Mrs. Edward Beale McLean, the former a nephew of Mme. Bakmeteff.

Participating in the fête which Mrs. Christian D. Hemmick of Washington is organizing to be presented at the Building of Arts, Monday, August 19, will be about forty of the most prominent, as well as the best looking, girls of Bar Harbor.

For those who are devotees of sports in the open, the annual pony gymkhana events, scheduled for Thursday, August 15, at the Point Judith Polo Club, will come as a diversion for the cottagers at Narragansett. Among the various matches arranged will be the polo ball races, musical chairs for women, basket and ball races, leading races for women, and a conundrum race, open to men and women, in pairs.

Among those who may enter the gymkhana races are Miss Dasha Allen and Miss Jeanette Allen of Washington; Miss Hannah Randolph, Miss Kate Penn, Mr. and Mrs. John Pell, Miss Isabel Mersman, and others of the villa colony.

Mrs. Hugh Wallace, daughter of the late Chief Justice Fuller, who with Mr. Wallace and their son, Melville F. Wallace, is spending the season at the Gables, at Westport on Lake Champlain, N. Y., entertained a party of fifteen at Diamond Island, about twelve miles from the Westport inn, last week at a picnic. The trip up the lake was made in a launch.

Lieut. Harry D. Chamberlain, U. S. A., and Mrs. Chamberlain, the latter formerly Miss Sally Garlington, whose marriage took place in Washington last month, are now at Hague, on Lake George, where they will remain for some time before making a tour of the West.

Rear Admiral Edward H. Green, U. S. N., and Mrs. Green and Miss Green, who spent the early part of the season at the Maplewood, in Pittsfield, Mass., have gone to St. Paul, Minn.

Captain Philip Brown, U. S. M. C., has arrived at Narragansett Pier and is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Brevoort Kane, at their cottage in Central street.

Mrs. Henry Yates Satterlee of Washington, who has been the guest of Mrs. Churchill Satterlee for the last several weeks at Lenox, Mass., has gone to Twilight Park.

Dr. John C. Boyd, U. S. N., and Mrs. Boyd and their daughter, Miss Alice Boyd, who left Washington early in the season to spend the summer touring in Europe, are now at Corns-lagen, guests at the Hotel Bristol.

Capt. John H. Gibbons, superintendent of the Naval Academy, and Mrs. Gibbons, who are spending the summer at the Savoy, Westport, at the island.

Mrs. Gary D. Langhorne, wife of Dr. Langhorne, U. S. N., is spending some time in Newport with Mrs. Francis S. Ash.

The engagement is announced of Miss Gussie Gann Lamar, daughter of Maj. William P. Lamar, of Rockville and grand-daughter of the late Judge L. J. C. Lamar of the United States Supreme Court, to Dr. Frederick N. Henderson of Rockville. The ceremony will take place in October. Dr. Henderson is the youngest son of Judge and Mrs. James B. Henderson of Rockville.

Dr. Henry P. Parker, whose marriage to Miss Eleanor Colton Ridgely, daughter of William Barrett Ridgely, and a granddaughter of Senator Charles D. Ridgely, will take place in the early winter. He has purchased the house at 1725 Connecticut avenue, formerly the home of Mrs. Henry Clifford Stuart.

Miss Marie Virginia Burke is the guest of Capt. and Mrs. James Thomas Postes, U. S. N., at Brooklyn, N. Y., where Capt. Postes is attached to the U. S. S. Michigan, and will be stationed at the New York navy yard.

Miss Doris Haywood, who has been making a series of visits along the North Shore, is now the guest of Mrs. Frank R. Hame and Miss Mabel Hume at the Imperial at Narragansett Pier.

Mrs. J. R. McVie, daughter of former President Harrison, and her daughter, Miss Mary L. McKee, of New York, are spending the month of August at Kinco, Me.

Brig. Gen. J. B. Aleshire, U. S. A., of Washington, who has been touring through the interesting cities of the Continent, has arrived at the Hotel Saint Antoine, Antwerp.

Mrs. Robert Hinckley and Miss Gladys Hinckley, who have spent the early season abroad, will sail shortly for this country. They will spend the summer in Bar Harbor.

Maj. Frederick P. Reynolds of the Medical Corps, U. S. A., and Mrs. Reynolds are spending a few days in New York.

BAKED CAULIFLOWER.

Let a head of cauliflower lie in strong salt water for half an hour; wash and boil in salted water for 15 minutes, then change the water and boil until tender; drain and set aside until cool, then chop fine. Spread the chopped cauliflower in the bottom of a buttered baking dish and pour over it a sauce made, as follows: Put a tablespoonful of butter into a saucepan and when it bubbles, stir in a tablespoonful of flour, add one pint of stock and one half pint of water, both boiling hot; stir until it is smooth, season to taste with pepper and salt, and mix well with it four tablespoonfuls of grated cheese. Sprinkle rolled crackers thickly over the top of the dish and dot with lumps of butter; bake for ten minutes in a quick oven.

Cauliflower is nice soaked as above, then cooked, drained and seasoned with salt, pepper and butter. Good hot or cold.—Commoner.

LIVE SUBJECT AT UNION SERVICES

The subject which the Rev. Frank L. Goodspeed has announced for his address at the Union service in the Bijou theater Sunday evening is a fundamental question to all religion: "How To Know God."

No matter what a man's religious beliefs may be this question must interest him. The search for God is absolutely universal. Even the unbeliever at some time or other doubts his doubts and wonders whether there is a God and whether he may be known.

The special Sunday evening music will again be furnished by the quartet, consisting of Mrs. Bruce Mackall, soprano; Mrs. Chas. Weigant, alto; Mr. Arthur Wall, tenor; Mr. Geo. A. Brown, bass. Miss Root, musical director at the Kamehameha Schools, will preside at the piano.

These services are for all English-speaking people of whatever nationality. Admission is free and everyone is invited.

MEMORIAL SERVICE FOR GENERAL BOOTH.

TRAINING DAUGHTERS TO HELP

HOME WORK WHICH THEY CAN DO

For many months past I have been making diligent inquiry among virtuous classes of people as to the best methods of training the growing girl to help in the home, writes William A. McKeever, professor of philosophy at the Kansas state agricultural college, who, in addition to being the author of several books, has issued a number of widely circulated bulletins on home training. In No. 3 he says:

It is not a large amount of work but definite and systematic work that is called for in properly training the growing girl. Nearly all the mothers questioned agreed that this home training should be begun early. In summarizing the statements of a large number of mothers we find them agreeing pretty generally that the young girl may pay her way to an extent that is entirely satisfactory, provided she be carefully trained in domestic affairs. But such training requires much time and patience and forbearance in the complex task of bringing the girl up to the highest possible degree of efficiency in the performance of every kind of work. And all these household exercises must be pare supper and breakfast, make the beds, help milk."

Parents should tell their daughters how anxious they are that they become able, willing and self-reliant home makers, and try to explain to them how dependent the world is for its well-being upon these very qualities in woman.

CAKES VARIED.

To serve little cookies and tiny cakes of several shapes is always more attractive than to have them of one form, and it can so easily be managed with a roller cake cutter, says the New York Times. This is a small tin roller which revolves on the same principle as a lawn mower, with a handle and has six patterns on it. All that has to be done to use it is to roll out the dough and run the cutter over it, and it will leave cut out six different pattern cakes.

TABLE CHANGE.

Just by way of making a change in the dining-room invest in some of the narrow blue and white Japanese ware, and use two strips for the table, running one strip each way so that they cross in the center, says the New Haven Journal-Courier. This arrangement gives a centerpiece and four plate doilies, and with their blue and white china makes a charming setting for the breakfast table.
